BY THE NUMBERS

Qualia Reconciliation Service

We surveyed 50+ clients nationwide to learn in-depth about how having a dedicated Reconciliation Specialist to manage exceptions has impacted their business. The numbers shared here are the results of this survey.

Detect fraud with confidence

A majority of survey respondents reported they're very or extremely confident in their ability to detect fraud or suspicious activity.

Reconcile daily & monthly 3x faster

Survey respondents reported that with Qualia, they completed daily and monthly reconciliations an average of three times faster. Some respondents said they were able to save as much time as two hours a day.

Saved an average of 40 minutes a day on reconciliations

Partner with a bank and save thousands

A majority of customers were previously paying monthly fees and wire fees. With a bank partnership, customers save an average of $54,000* on bank fees annually. We asked clients what types of fees they were paying before their switch to a partner bank:

Get better service

A majority of survey respondents reported they're now more confident in their bank partner's ability to prioritize their wires than they were previously. Get a direct line to a banking expert with a dedicated title support team to ensure closings are never delayed.

Monthly Fees Wire Fees Remote Deposit Fees Other

Survey respondents who switched to one of Qualia's partner banks were able to substantially reduce the cost of the Reconciliation Service as well as banking fees.

*Estimates based on actual savings of Qualia Premium Plan customers receiving the Reconciliation Service through the Bank Partnership Program exclusive to Reconciliation Service Customers. Actual cost savings may vary.
